

From All that Dwells

(4-part Round)

Unitarian Prayer

Craig Carnahan
Minneapolis, MN | 2020

From all that dwells below the skies,
Let faith and hope with joy arise,
Let beauty, truth, and good be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

Unitarian Prayer

From all that dwells be - low the skies, Let faith and hope with joy a - rise, Let beau - ty, truth, and good be sung Through ve - ry land, by eve - ry tongue. —

Performance Note: This round is intended to be performed in a variety of voicings (treble, mixed, etc.) and can be repeated at the conductor's discretion. Its potential use ranges from a warm-up/centering exercise for an ensemble, to more formal performance during a worship service, either by choir alone or by including the congregation.

www.craigcarnahan.com
carnacraig@gmail.com